BY BOWERY BLAZE

Two Lodging Houses and Big Tenement Emptied in Zero Weather.

More than 600 persons, most.y Bowery ledging house inmates, were driven from their beds into the cold by a fire in Emil Wagner's restaurant at No. 103 Howery early to-day. Many of the men were almost naked as they fled to the street. They were sheltered in neighboring lodging houses.

The occupants of No. 31 and 83 Chrystie street, a tenement house, were also driven out and men, women and children, all scantily clad, had to find shel-ter in other buildings.

The fire was discovered by Policeman Dolan, who turned in an alarm and his rap for help brought Policemen Weckesser and Robinson. The three dashed upstairs to the Home Hotel, a cheap sleeping place for men above the burning restaurant. George Irwin, the night clerk, was unaware that fire was reging helow, although by that time the
